A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broad-cast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merit, and made them medicines of known composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the closest scrutiny. Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomachs, biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or card requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native medicinal roots of great value, also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed long years ago by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their wives. In fact one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants was gained from the Indians. As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the normal functions, correcting displacements, as prostrations, antivenereal and retentive, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all druggists in medicine.

ABDUL HAMID DOOMED.

Officers and soldiers alike have come to Constantinople with one hope and object—to remove Abdul Hamid from the throne and to demand his death and the dispersal of his body among the provinces as a sign that tyranny is over.

Considerable sums of money were found on the sultan's soldiers who surrendered to the Macedonians. It is alleged that 200,000 pounds were distributed among the provinces of the garrison of the capital. Only one person could command such a sum, and if this is proved, the fate of the sultan is sealed.

The military authorities are not disposed to relax their hold and permit indirect interference by parliament. Hitherto their conduct has been admirable. Order has been preserved, and there has been no violence of any kind.

One of the highest military authorities said yesterday:

"We intend to make a clean sweep. We shall try every one suspected of connection with the recent coup. There will be no respect for person or position. Even the highest shall not escape. The reason we approached the capital slowly was to avoid disturbance which would be likely to give an excuse for foreign intervention."

Abdul Hamid still remains in the palace, through the garrison has surrendered. It is suspected, however, that a guard of a few thousands strong is still hidden in the walled citadel of the palace.

The guns of the Young Turks, therefore, remained trained on the Yildiz Kiosk.

A caucus of senators and deputies yesterday determined to make an effort to compel Abdul Hamid to abdicate under the ecclesiastical law, by the terms of which a decree may be issued by the sheik-ul-islam, the highest authority of Mohammedanism next to the sultan, pronouncing the sultan incapable of ruling.

The grounds upon which the issuance of a canonical receipt will be demanded are that the sultan's supremacy is harmful to the church, contrary to the sacred law, and unjust to the Turkish people. The programme as agreed upon at the caucus is that a demand shall be made for the abdication of Abdul Hamid simultaneously from the highest court of the church, from the national assembly, and from the military chief. The sultan will be offered a palace and a liberal allowance.

CONDITIONS IN ASIA MINOR.

A dispatch from Alexandretta, Asiatic Turkey, says refugees who have made their escape from Deiriyul, which is a small town not far from Alexandretta, bring most alarming accounts of the situation there. The sultan has 100,000 Armenians are beleaguered by 50,000 Moslems. The beleagued are half starving and the conditions within the walls of the city are pitiful. The foreign consuls estimate about 6,000 townspeople and refugees at Deiriyul, with perhaps as many more Turks threatening them with the outside. It is certain that there are no Americans at that place.

The commanders of the British and other warships at Alexandretta have had under consideration the landing of a force to relieve the beleaguered town but they finally decided that this was wholly impracticable, as they had no right to interfere in a purely internal affair and the governor declined to give his permission to the landing of an armed force.

If relieving forces are sent out in opposition to the governor's wishes, it was recognized that such an expedition would be equivalent to a declaration of war, and, in addition, the largest commands that warships could muster would stand in great danger of being overwhelmed if they attempted to force their way against such immense odds.

The town of Hadjin, about 100 miles to the north of Alexandretta, where the residents have withstood the assault of the fanatics for the past week, was in flames Sunday. According to reports, several of the quarters escaped and up to midnight Sunday all the Americans were safe. At this place there are five American women missionaries.

A Healing Salve for Burns, Chapped Hands and Sore Nipples.

As a healing salve for burns, sores, sore nipples and chapped hands Chamberlain's Salve is none so excellent. It allays the pain of a burn almost instantly, and unless the injury is very severe, heals the parts without leaving a scar. Price 25 cents. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Orlington & Co.

Everybody's Magazine for May, which has been received from its publishers in New York, has as its leading article "Does the weather bureau make good?" It does this bureau the Delphic oracle and asks if it is worth a million and a half a year. "The new regime in China" gives the latest in Chinese affairs and is illustrated with unusual photographs. "The patriarch's pregnancy" gives a realistic glimpse of certain conditions in the south and "Heroes and heroines of the violin" contributes recollections of great masters. Mr. Frederick Adams proves unanswerably in this issue, "The cost of the Wall Street game," and Thos. W. Lawson tells why it is that his followers sometimes lose. This month's fiction is excellent, consisting of a serial and seven short stories.
